The short grievance of the petitioner is that no proper investigation is being conducted into crime No.192/06 of Thrikkakkara police station. The learned Public Prosecutor submits and a statement to that effect has been filed by the respondents that the investigation which was initially conducted by the Sub Inspector of Police has now been entrusted with the Circle Inspector of Police, Kalamassery by the order of the Commissioner of Police dated 6/8/2007. The learned Public Prosecutor submits that the needful shall be done and the final report shall be filed expeditiously, at any rate, within a period of three months from this date.

2. I am satisfied that no further directions are necessary. The final report shall be filed as expeditiously as possible, at any rate, within a period of three months from this date. Compliance shall be reported to this court.

Hand over copy of this order to the learned counsel for the petitioner.
